Opening Statement by Mr. Beane

1 (Excerpt of proceedings.)

2 (In the presence of the jury.)

3 MR. BEANE: Good afternoon.

4 I chose to represent -- or I want to call it present
5 myself to you, because I felt like that would be the most
6 original way for you to see the intentions here, whether
7 they're of good character or bad character as the Court has so
8 perfectly done a job of painting a picture.

9 And that's the way I wanted you to see this today, is
10 you're looking at a picture. You're sitting there seeing a
11 picture in this courtroom in your mind's eye of things that are 12 being painted by words that are said and by people's actions.

13 And I wanted to kind of relate to what I thought of 14 was, if you're looking at a TV, and all of the sudden, the 15 picture becomes pixilated, that means that data is being messed
16 up, you're not getting the complete data to see the clear
17 picture.

18 And so I want you to understand that there's a very 19 pixilated picture going on in this courtroom. And I hope that 20 by the time I'm done giving my testimony that you understand
21 that there's a different picture than what's been painted in 22 this courtroom.

23 Thank you.

24 (Excerpt of proceedings concluded.)
